

- Phillipsburg High School- Class of 1989.
- Kutztown University of Pennsylvania - BS in Secondary Education with a concentration in Social Studies and a minor in Political Science.
- Centenary University – Masters in Business Administration.
- Career: Working for a Building product Manufacturer for 20+ years. Experienced in building material manufacturing and a long career in the private sector focusing on sales, marketing and business development. Proudly working for a company with all products that are manufactured in the USA.
- Specialized professional skills: Annual budgeting, economic forecasting, negotiating contracts, marketing and strategic national account management for Fortune 500 and 100 accounts, partnership development, and creating long term sustainable profitability across multiple channels and markets in North America.
- Local & Professional Affiliations: NJ Federation of Republican Women, Warren County Republican Women, Finalist in USA Football's Team Mom of the Year, founding sister of Tri-Omicron Sorority - now Theta Phi Alpha at Kutztown University, Phillipsburg historical society contributor to the "Historic Architecture of Phillipsburg, New Jersey", Recipient of the Total Quality and Service award, a two-time recipient of the "I Made a Difference" award for profitable/creative solutions, President's Club award winner, Planning for Profit Excellence winner, Training for the Trades, Habitat for Humanity Volunteer, Associate member of STAFDA, AIA, CSI, CISCA, AWCI, online trainer and instructor for course development and LMS.
- Councilwoman DeGerolamo resides in town with her husband Kevin, two grown sons, Nicholas and John Thomas, and their pets Max, Monopoly, Marble & Maloney.