

TOWN OF PHILLIPSBURG

Warren County, New Jersey

DECLARATION OF SNOW EMERGENCY

Wednesday, March 21, 2018

The Town of Phillipsburg has declared a Snow Emergency due to the potential for heavy snowfall and blizzard conditions. All Snow Emergency provisions will be in effect beginning at 6AM, Wednesday, March 21, 2018. All vehicles must be removed by 6AM from designated Snow Emergency Routes; consequently there will be no parking on all posted streets, avenues and roads until the Snow Emergency is lifted. Any vehicles not removed by the designated time or abandoned in the roadway will be ticketed and towed at the owners expense. Residents are requested to clear sidewalks within 24 hours of the ending of the storm. Residents are not permitted to throw, dump or plow snow into any street. All unnecessary travel should be avoided. Residents, businesses or industry with fire hydrants on their property are requested to keep them clear of snow. Phillipsburg Police and Fire Departments will answer emergency calls only.
